6.5 Disclosure of Personal Information

Edelweiss may share the Personal Information of the Data Subjects with third parties, in a variety of ways, including, as the following:

- Agents acting on behalf of Edelweiss: Edelweiss may share Personal Information about its Data Subjects with service providers or agents in order to have them perform on Edelweiss’ behalf any of the activities Edelweiss is permitted to conduct under this Policy, Applicable Laws, Rules and Regulations and other applicable contractual terms. This includes things like designing or operating features, helping Edelweiss research and test feature improvements, identifying offers or personalized recommendations, performing analytics and marketing its services. These third parties are acting on behalf of Edelweiss so while they may have access to Personal Information they are required to follow Edelweiss’ instructions and meet the standards explained in this Policy when handling information about a Data Subject that Edelweiss provide them.

- As Part of a Corporate Change: Edelweiss may disclose and transfer information about Data Subjects to a third party as part of, or in preparation for, capital raising, change of control, restructuring, corporate change, or sale or transfer of assets. For instance, Edelweiss may allow a potential acquirer or merger partner to review its databases, although it would restrict their use and disclosure of this data during the diligence phase.

- For Legal Reasons: Edelweiss reserves the right to transfer or disclose information about Data Subjects to third parties for certain legal purposes as required by law enforcement, government officials, or other third parties pursuant to a court order, or other legal process or when it believes, in its sole discretion, that the disclosure of Personal Information is necessary to prevent physical harm or financial loss, to report suspected illegal activity or to investigate violations of legal agreements or organizational policies; to enforce its terms and conditions, to protect the security or integrity of its services;

- With Data Subject’s Consent: There may also be other limited contexts in which Edelweiss shares specific types of Personal Information with the express consent of Data Subjects.

- Edelweiss would like to clarify that it does not sell/share the Personal Information of Data Subjects to/with third parties without an explicit contract.
6.6 Consent for Processing and Transfer of Personal Information

Given that Edelweiss is an organization having an international presence as well as the digital nature of Personal Information, there may be a likelihood of the Personal Information collected by Edelweiss from the Data Subjects being transferred to and stored at, a destination outside India, subject to such laws as maybe applicable from time to time, including for the purposes of processing. By submitting Personal Information, the Data Subject agrees to this kind of storing, processing and transferring of the Personal information. However, the Data Subject will appreciate that Edelweiss is inclined towards the safety of its Personal Information and therefore, it takes all reasonable steps to ensure that such Personal information is treated securely and in accordance with this Policy and Applicable Law, Rules and Regulations. Moreover, it is clarified that whenever Edelweiss shares data, it relies on lawful measures to transfer such data.

6.7 Aggregated or Anonymized Data

Edelweiss may combine a Data Subject’s Personal Information with those of other users of its services and share or provide this trend information in aggregated and anonymized form with third parties, such as prospective investors, affiliates, partners and advertisers. This will only be anonymized data, and will never be capable of personally identifying an individual, and, will only be shared in accordance with Applicable Laws, Rules and Regulations. For example, Edelweiss may anonymize a Data Subject’s Personal Information and use it in aggregated form in order to report on industry, marketing and employment trends.

7 Protection and Security of Personal Information

Edelweiss shall protect the Personal Information received from the Data Subjects with the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent the unauthorized use, dissemination or publication of the information as it protects its own confidential information of a like nature. Edelweiss shall maintain physical, technical and procedural safeguards that are appropriate to protect the Data Subjects’ Personal Information from loss, unauthorized access, copying, use, modification or disclosure. Edelweiss has appropriate policies and technical and organizational measures in place to safeguard and protect the Data Subjects’ Personal Information against unlawful or unauthorized access, accidental loss or destruction, damage, unlawful or unauthorized use and disclosure. Edelweiss will also take all reasonable precautions to ensure that its staff and employees who have access to Personal Information about the Data Subjects have received adequate training.

8 Retention and Disposal of Personal Information

Edelweiss endeavors to retain the Personal Information only for as long as it is necessary to fulfill the purpose for which the same was collected. The Personal Information will be kept in a manner which permits identification for as long as it is necessary for the purposes for which the relevant Personal Information is processed and as required by the Applicable Laws, Rules and Regulations. Edelweiss has the right to retain the Personal Information for legal and regulatory purpose and/or as per applicable data protection laws. Personal Information may be stored for longer periods where the Personal Information is being processed for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes or other purposes permitted under Applicable Laws, Rules and Regulations subject to implementation of the appropriate technical and organizational measures.

9 Accuracy of Personal Information

Edelweiss does its best to ensure that the Personal Information it holds and uses is accurate. Edelweiss relies on the Data Subjects to disclose to it all relevant information and to inform of any changes thereto.
10 Access/Review of Personal Information

A Data Subject is entitled to request details of his/her Personal Information that Edelweiss holds. If a Data Subject wants to review, modify, verify, correct, restrict, seek deletion, seek erasure of any of the Personal Information, the Data Subject may contact the Data Protection Officer using the contact details provided herein. If any Personal Information happens to change during the course of employment/contract period/business arrangement, the Data Subject is requested to keep Edelweiss informed of the same.

11 Breach of Personal Information

Edelweiss takes appropriate steps to maintain the security of Personal Information collected from Data Subjects. If a security breach occurs, Edelweiss will promptly take steps to address the breach. If a security breach causes an unauthorized intrusion in the Edelweiss system that materially affects a Data Subject, Edelweiss will endeavor to notify the concerned Data Subject as soon as possible and where necessary or required by Applicable Laws, Rules and Regulations, report the actions taken in response to any breach.

Disclaimer: In such an event however, Edelweiss assumes no responsibility of whatsoever nature, for making good the losses and damages that a Data Subject may incur.

12 Review of the Policy

This Policy is subject to modifications as per changes in Applicable Laws, Rules and Regulations changes within Edelweiss’ operating environment or on recommendations of the internal/external auditors. Edelweiss reserves the right to modify this Policy at any time, without notice to Data Subject/(s).

The Data Protection Officer will review the compliance of this Policy and the processes thereunder on an annual basis to ensure continuous monitoring through the implementation of compliance measurements and review processes in accordance with the Applicable Laws, Rules and Regulations. If there are any material changes in the way Edelweiss treats a Data Subject’s Personal Information, Edelweiss will place a prominent notice on its websites before the change goes into effect.

Edelweiss will regularly review the Policy and may make changes, as maybe required, to this Policy from time-to-time.

BY ACCEPTING THIS PRIVACY POLICY, YOU AS THE DATA SUBJECT, EXPRESSLY CONSENT TO EDELWEISS COLLECTING, RECEIVING, POSSESSING, STORING, DEALING, HANDLING, PROCESSING, DISTRIBUTING AND PROTECTING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION IN THE MANNER PRESCRIBED HEREIN.
